Description

Everett women's sweatshirt. The hiking sweatshirt is decorated with the inscription Everett on the sleeve and on the front. The trekking sweatshirt has a stand that protects the neck in cold weather. A chest pocket and two side pockets hide all the little things. The plus point of the trekking sweatshirt is the thumb holes in the lower part of the sleeves. Ladies will definitely appreciate the slightly elongated back.

The outdoor sweatshirt for ladies is made of a pleasant material that ensures comfort when wearing it. The forest sweatshirt for ladies is a guarantee of a wide range of movement. YKK zippers, which are known for their durability, are a plus. You can wear the women's sweatshirt as a top layer or as a bottom layer under a windbreaker. A great choice for outdoor expeditions, hiking adventures, trekking and camping.
