Description

Women's sweatshirt brand 4F. The sports sweatshirt catches the eye with its refined cut. The sweatshirt for training will protect you in adverse weather. The strength of the sweatshirt for sports is the 4F Dry technology, which guarantees very good moisture removal and quick drying.

The workout sweatshirt provides great wearing comfort. The branded sweatshirt has two side zip pockets that hide all the little things. A bonus is the stand that protects the neck. The advantage is the reflective elements, which you will appreciate in poor lighting conditions. The light gray sweatshirt is ideal for sports activities, work-out exercises and training.
