Description

Women's sweatshirt brand 4F. The functional sweatshirt is designed in a modern minimalist design characterized by clean lines. The sports sweatshirt has a classic cut that fits well on every body type. The exercise sweatshirt does not restrict movement. A bonus is the practical hood, which you will appreciate in colder weather.

The sweatshirt for training convinces with excellent functionality in the form of excellent sweat removal and quick drying. A sports sweatshirt is a guarantee of breathability and support during sports. The inner side is gently insulated, so even the changeable spring and autumn weather will not stop you from sporting activities.
