Description

Under Armor women's shoes. Sports sneakers are designed in a modern sports design. Training boots for ladies are excellently combined with various sports outfits. The plus of women's sports boots is the classic lacing, which reliably fixes the foot.

The light mesh upper of the training sneakers ensures excellent air circulation. A plus of branded sneakers is the foam padding around the ankle collar, which increases comfort when worn. The shaped insole made of EVA material ensures comfort during sports activities. The flexible midsole provides cushioning and shock absorption. The durable sole of the training boots will provide excellent traction. Black Under Armor sneakers are the best companions for training, sports activities and various exercises.
