Description

Fjallraven brand backpack. The branded backpack attracts attention with its colorful handle and colorful straps in the colors of the rainbow. The Fjallraven Kanken backpack is made without harmful PFC substances. The spacious main compartment is complemented by a pocket on the front. A plus is the seat pad. The shoulder straps are easily adjustable and customizable as needed. The orange backpack is ideal for casual wear and leisure activities.

A portion of the revenue from each backpack goes to environmental projects within the Arctic Fox initiative. The Fjällräven Kånken backpack is made of durable Vinylon F, which together with the timeless design creates the perfect conditions for genuine reliability and everyday use for many years. That is sustainability through longevity.
