Description

New Era cap. The branded cap in trucker style is suitable as a men's and women's cap by its design. It has a delicate design that you can easily combine with your clothes. The front part with the visor is made of pleasant cotton material. The side walls and the back are made of mesh panels. They ensure sufficient breathability, so you don't overheat even on hot summer days.

The NY cap has the popular New York Yankees club logo embroidered on the front. The curved visor will provide excellent protection against unpleasant sun rays. The New Era cap can be adjusted using a strap at the back. It is an excellent companion for summer, trips and leisure activities.
