Description

Adidas men's shoes. Men's mountain boots in orange design will attract attention at first sight and convince with durability and technical design. Men's outdoor shoes adapt perfectly to the foot thanks to the classic lacing. The construction of men's trekking shoes is a support for conquering hiking trails. Combine these trekking shoes with hiking pants and a hiking sweatshirt and set off on an adventure.

The benefit of men's forest boots is the upper with a ripstop structure, which is extremely durable and breathable at the same time. The soft insole ensures comfort during trekking. A midsole made of EVA material provides reliable cushioning and shock absorption. Traxion anti-slip sole guarantees excellent grip and traction. Orange mountain boots are the best companions for conquering hiking trails, trekking, camping and outdoor adventures.

Note: For these shoes, order one size larger than you normally wear. If you usually wear a size 41 1/3, order a size 42.
