Description

Adidas men's shoes. Men's forest boots will be your reliable companions on hiking expeditions. Outdoor shoes for men are made of recycled materials. The durable and breathable mesh upper will provide excellent air circulation. The heel and toe of the men's outdoor shoes are additionally reinforced for greater foot protection. Trekking shoes are tied with classic laces, which perfectly fix the foot in the shoe. The loop at the back will help you when putting on and taking off shoes.

Low hiking shoes for men in gray - black version have a timeless design. The adidas Terrex trekking shoes are comfortable thanks to the padded shoe collar and soft insole. The EVA foam midsole provides excellent cushioning and shock absorption. Men's hiking boots have a Traxion sole, which guarantees excellent grip and traction. A great choice for trekking, camping and outdoor adventures.
