Description

New Era junior cap. A trendy cap with a structured six-panel crown perfectly follows the shape of the head. The logo of the New York Yankees team, from the American Association of Major League Baseball, is embroidered in the front part. There are small holes around the entire perimeter of the NY cap, the purpose of which is to ensure excellent air circulation.

The back panel of the NY cap is open and connected by an adjustable strap with a metal buckle. Thanks to the strap, the branded cap can be easily adjusted as needed. The red New Era cap is an ideal choice for everyday wear and leisure activities.
