Description

Kayland men's shoes. One of the most popular models of the Kayland brand. These hiking shoes represent classically constructed shoes for demanding terrain. They are stable and durable, suitable even for demanding tourism throughout the year. These high hiking boots will also be appreciated by hunters, forest workers and people working in wet terrain .

The hiking boots have a leather upper and have been waterproofed with a Gore-Tex membrane. There is a protective rubber coating around the shoes. Boots for the forest are tied with classic laces and have a higher cut that protects the foot even in difficult terrain. The branded outdoor shoes have a padded collar for greater comfort. The Vibram sole is a guarantee of quality and suitable for any terrain. These full leather hiking boots are definitely the right choice for all action hikers.
