Description

Grisport brand women's shoes. Low-cut hiking boots impress with their modern design. Thanks to the soft insole, the trekking shoes are very comfortable. The soft padded tongue is also an advantage of trekking shoes. The upper of the outdoor shoe is a combination of suede and synthetic material for a higher level of durability and breathability. The toe and heel of the trekking shoes are reinforced with additional material to protect the foot.

Hiking shoes have a Gritex membrane that ensures breathability. The Vibram sole will help you conquer different types of terrain. Sturdy outdoor shoes are suitable for light and moderately demanding hiking. Also ideal for casual wear to the city.
