Description

VoXX brand socks. Outdoor socks for hiking boots absorb moisture well. Socks for the forest reach about half the calf. The classic height of trekking socks is suitable for every type of foot. The advantage of trekking socks is the soft knit, which ensures excellent wearing comfort.

Mountain socks are made of silproX material, which contains silver ions. Thanks to this material, nature socks have antibacterial properties. The fabric of outdoor socks has a high proportion of cotton. The natural cotton fiber wicks away sweat very well. Gray hiking socks are excellent companions for hiking trails, trekking and outdoor adventures. Also suitable for running, walking, indoor sports and everyday wear. The socks belong to temperature class B: from -5°C to + 20°C.
