Description

Kayland women's shoes adapted to the ergonomics of a woman's foot. The Plume Micro Ws GTX model in gray is intended for three-season use. Hiking boots perfectly adapt to the terrain. Outdoor shoes have a reinforced heel and toe for better foot protection.

Trekking shoes have a Gore-Tex® Extended Comfort membrane for a higher level of protection and comfort. The reinforced toe and Vibram sole predestinate Kayland outdoor shoes for demanding hiking trails and "via ferrata" routes.
