Description

Kayland men's shoes. Trekking shoes Starland in brown color will please you with a high-quality and durable upper. Boots for the forest will especially appeal to men who prefer a timeless look. The toe and heel of the trekking shoes are reinforced with additional material for a higher level of foot protection. The Gore-Tex® Extended Comfort membrane ensures excellent breathability and water resistance. Thanks to this membrane, your mountain shoes will always be dry and extremely comfortable.

Hiking boots provide support and excellent performance. The padded interior and soft insole of the trekking shoes will ensure comfort when tackling hiking trails. The Vibram New Malaku sole is a guarantee of grip. Outdoor footwear is designed for demanding hikes, trekking and hiking trails.
