Description

Under Armor women's shoes. Training shoes - UA W Skylar - orange color, are made of light mesh that provides better ventilation. Foam padding around the ankles and under the tongue increases the feeling of comfort when walking and exercising. The Micro G® shoe lining also contributes to comfort. The low and light midsole provides great comfort and stability during all-day wear.

The sole is made of double density rubber. It is two-colored with a 2D effect, which looks very stylish.
