Description

Trezeta men's shoes. Hiking boots for trekking enthusiasts looking for comfort and protection. The higher cut of trekking shoes is a guarantee of better stability. Highly protective and breathable suede forms the upper part of the trekking shoes. WaterStopper technology ensures excellent functional properties. Thanks to this water-resistant technology, your feet will always be dry. The soft insole and inner padding ensure comfort when tackling hiking trails. The padded collar and tongue of the trekking shoes also contribute to comfort.

The midsole guarantees excellent cushioning, cushioning and shock absorption on uneven terrain. Boots for the forest have a Vibram® sole for excellent grip even on rocky slopes. The Vibram® Soul sole conquers any terrain. Ideal trekking shoes for demanding hiking, trekking, camping and outdoor adventures.
