Description

Spokey washer. The Savasana mat ensures comfort during every exercise. The yoga mat is suitable for both beginners and advanced students.

You will love the mat thanks to its original design in combination with cork material. Natural cork is a great material because it provides excellent adhesion, does not absorb sweat and moisture, does not cause allergies and has antibacterial properties. Caring for cork is very simple, thanks to which the mat will serve you for many years. To get rid of dirt from its surface, just wipe the mat with a damp cloth.

Thanks to its thickness of 4 mm, the fitness mat provides excellent cushioning . It is perfect for home yoga practice. It will help you master individual asanas and improve your ability to control your body in individual positions. The pad is equipped with a practical strap for easier transport.
