Description

Under armor women's shoes. The gray UA Hovr running shoes are a combination of flexibility, cushioning and breathability. The shoes feature Record Sensor™ technology that tracks, analyzes and stores virtually every running metric, so you know exactly what you need to do to improve.

UA HOVR™ technology provides a "zero gravity" feel, helping to maintain energy return and eliminate shock. Running sneakers are a great choice not only for running, but also for other sports.
