Description

Blizzard women's jacket. The quilted ski windbreaker in a blue-white-red look is a stylish piece that you can use on the slopes and in the city. The women's winter jacket is made of light and flexible 4-way stretch material with a Dripex membrane and DWR water-repellent finish. Thanks to this, the women's windbreaker is waterproof and windproof. You will definitely appreciate the taped flat seams.

The women's jacket has a built-in hood and a snow belt. A heat-reflective lining was used for a feeling of warmth. Thanks to the ergonomic cut and the use of elastic material, the women's ski jacket will not hinder your movement. The winter jacket for ladies has two side pockets and a pocket for ski goggles or a ski pass. It is suitable for skiing, snowboarding, walks in nature and in the city.
