Description

Grisport men's shoes. Walten II hiking boots will especially appeal to men who prefer a classic, timeless design. The tip of the mountain boot protects the toes thanks to the additional material. The upper of outdoor shoes is synonymous with quality and durability. Red laces are a distinctive feature of the forest boots.

The higher cut of the trekking shoes insulates the feet from the cold. The Gritex membrane ensures optimal breathability. The Vibram sole with excellent traction and grip is ideal for all types of terrain. Outdoor shoes are a great choice for trekking and demanding alpine tourism.
