Description

New Era women's cap. A stylish cap with a structured six-panel crown follows the shape of the head very well. The logo of the New York Yankees team, from the American Association of Major League Baseball, is embroidered in the front part. There are small holes around the entire perimeter of the NY cap for ladies, the purpose of which is to ensure excellent air circulation.

The back panel of the trendy cap is open and connected by an adjustable strap with a metal buckle. Thanks to the strap, the branded New Era cap can be easily adjusted as needed. The pink New Era cap is a great choice for everyday wear and leisure activities.
