Description

Men's pants from the brand Authority. Neriomny trekking pants will convince you with their technical design and functional features. Outdoor pants are made of softshell material, which is a guarantee of durability.

Thanks to the wind-resistant material, the hiking pants will protect you in bad weather. Trekking pants are water resistant to a certain extent, so even the rain won't surprise you. The trousers for the forest have an adjustable waist, which perfectly adapts to the figure. Black pants are ideal companions for hiking, trekking, camping and outdoor adventures.
