Description

Voxx brand socks. Stabil Climaarm trekking socks are a combination of comfort and functionality. Socks for ladies and gentlemen are a guarantee of excellent air ventilation. The advantage of terry socks for hiking is the antibacterial protection of silver ions. The warmth of the trekking socks is provided by merino wool, which is soft and provides excellent comfort.

The most stressed zones of knitted socks are padded to prevent bruises and blisters. Merino hiking socks are finished with a hem that gently fits the skin. Blue socks for hiking boots are a great choice for hiking, trekking, walks in nature and camping. Socks belong to temperature class D: from -35°C to -10°C.
