Description

Tecnica men's shoes. Plasma hiking boots in green design are light and flexible. Men's mountain boots are a guarantee of great traction and support. Trekking shoes were designed with mobility in mind. Men's shoes impress with their modern look, which makes them ideal not only for the forest, but you can also wear them in the city.

The benefit of trekking shoes is the CAS insole, which adapts perfectly to the shape of the foot. The midsole with the Agile system provides excellent cushioning and shock absorption. The outdoor shoes have a durable Vibram sole that convinces with great traction and grip. Boots for the forest are excellent companions for hiking, trekking and camping.
