Description

Under armor training bra. Sports bra for all active ladies! Provides medium support for activities such as cycling, boxing or weight training. Made of original HeatGear material, this sports bra is extremely comfortable and provides reliable support.

The sports bra is easy and comfortable to wear thanks to the classic hook closure on the back. The wide bottom hem has a small brand logo on it and hugs the body comfortably. The mesh panels used in the construction ensure extra ventilation. Full-surface reinforcement ensures ideal coverage. The straps are adjustable and can be adjusted in two ways - crossed or classic and have a graphic print with Under armor brand inscriptions. The material used wicks away moisture and dries very quickly.
