Description

Women's pants by Northfinder brand. Trekking pants are a combination of a good fit and proven softshell material. The hiking pants are made of a light yet durable fabric that protects against wind gusts on the ridges or adverse weather.

Thanks to the perfect belt adjustment system, they fit well and do not impede air circulation. The shape of the knees supports smooth movement. The ergonomically placed front pockets are zipped and you can store everything you need to carry in them. The lower part of the trekking pants can be adjusted as needed. Black softshell pants for ladies are the right choice for trekking, demanding hiking, mountain walks and outdoor activities.
