Description

Women's pants by Northfinder brand. Trekking pants made of light and flexible material will be great companions for all outdoor adventures. The material of the trekking pants is durable, perfectly ventilates accumulated heat and, if necessary, dries quickly. You will appreciate the waterproof finish especially in bad weather.

The shaped elastic waist not only fits well, but also shapes the figure thanks to the tapered cut. The hiking pants can be narrowed or lengthened as needed using a zipper. Well-placed open pockets on the sides complete the construction. Black pants for ladies are ideal companions for conquering hiking trails, trekking, walking in the forest and camping.
