Description

Tecnica women's shoes. Outdoor shoes are specially designed for women. With this model of mountain shoes, the emphasis was placed on the anatomy of the female foot. The upper part of hiking boots for ladies is made of durable material. The higher cut improves stability when tackling hiking trails.

Waterproofness and dryness in trekking shoes will be ensured by the Gore-tex membrane. The midsole of hiking shoes provides excellent cushioning and shock absorption during trekking. Thanks to the Vibram sole, you can conquer any terrain in these forest shoes. Gray shoes for ladies are great companions for demanding hiking and conquering via ferrata routes.
