Description

Trezeta women's shoes. Trekking shoes attract attention not only with a trendy outdoor look, but also with very good functionality. Women's mountain boots provide excellent comfort thanks to the padded interior and soft insole. Hiking shoes for ladies have a suede upper with a water-resistant finish. The advantage of trekking shoes is the water-resistant Trezeta® Waterstopper lining, which protects the foot and keeps it dry.

The microporous midsole ensures very good shock absorption, damping and cushioning. The plus of hiking shoes for ladies is the Vibram® Predator II sole, which conquers all types of terrain, including demanding rocky terrain. Women's hiking boots are the right choice for camping, hiking trails and outdoor adventures. You can easily combine beige shoes with hiking pants and a trekking t-shirt and you can go on an adventure.
