Description

Women's shoes from the brand Skechers. Sports shoes for ladies in an interesting design are pink and complemented by black details. Pink sneakers will ensure you fame and you will catch everyone's eye in them. They are decorated with a minimalist Skechers logo on the side. Skechers sneakers have a white Ultra Light sole that provides the best impact absorption during your training. In them, you feel as if you are jumping from cloud to cloud. Boots for ladies have reinforced toe and heel for reliable protection. The mesh upper ensures very good air ventilation, which will make you happy during exercise. They have a classic lacing, so they ensure a reliable fixation of the foot in the sneaker.

The branded shoes have a back loop on the heel for easier putting on and taking off. The light cushioning midsole creates a higher level of comfort. It is a piece that can be easily combined with various outfits, which you can use for sports events or for free time. Go Run shoes are a must-have item in your wardrobe. They have a low cut. Training sneakers are an ideal solution for everyday casual wear, to the city, for training, for walks, for hiking or other leisure or sports activities.
