Description

Women's trousers from the brand Authority. Sweatpants for ladies impress with their modern design. Women's sweatpants have a refined combination of black and gray colors. Trendy sweatpants have a slightly narrower cut that fits well on the figure. Women's sweatpants guarantee a high level of mobility.

Sweatpants for women contain a high proportion of cotton. Cotton sweatpants are extremely comfortable and pleasant to the touch. At the same time, they ensure excellent breathability. The elastic waist perfectly adapts to the figure. There are also two side pockets. You can use gray sweatpants with black elements for home wear and leisure activities.
