Description

Men's sweatshirt from the brand Authority. Fleece sweatshirt suitable for skiing or other winter activities such as snowboarding or cross-country skiing. You can use the sweatshirt as a middle layer under a ski jacket. The ski jacket fastens with a zipper that has a chin guard on top. The blue sweatshirt has cuffs finished with an elastic hem, as well as the bottom hem.

The fleece sweatshirt has three practical pockets. You can find two on the side and one on the chest. The pockets of the sports sweatshirt are closed with a zip. The branded sweatshirt for men without a hood has a versatile use, so you no longer have to worry about what to take with you on the slopes or for a walk in winter.
