Description

Voxx brand socks. Etrex hiking socks are anatomically shaped. The padded zones of the trekking socks prevent bruises and blisters. Trekking socks are a guarantee of excellent breathability. Trekking socks are a must-have accessory that cannot be missed by hiking enthusiasts.

The strong side of hiking socks is the antibacterial protection of silproX material with silver ions. Outdoor socks provide exceptional thermal comfort thanks to CLIMAYARN merino wool. Dark gray socks are a great choice for hiking, trekking, camping and outdoor activities.
