Description

Under Armor junior footwear. Children's sneakers are a suitable choice for free time, exercise or training. The black upper with a white logo will provide sufficient breathability thanks to the mesh material. The patented Charged Cushioning® midsole guarantees the brand's sneakers an amazing response, maximum shock absorption and a nimble feeling that will keep you in the right rhythm during exercise.

Sports shoes for children have a light construction. The reinforced heel and toe helps to keep the foot in children's shoes firm and stable. The black sneakers have a plush insole that keeps its shape even after wearing it all day. Anti-odor technology applied to the insole of Under Armor sneakers prevents the growth of odor-causing microbes. Firm rubber sole with strategically placed lugs for greater durability.
