Description

Women's jacket from the brand Authority. Women's ski jacket in a trendy red-black design. The waterproof ski jacket is water and wind resistant and will protect you in all weather conditions. Its cut nicely shapes the female figure and the delicate stitching catches the eye. The ski windbreaker has a removable hood with trendy fur. It's up to you whether you unfasten only the fur and leave the hood or unfasten the entire hood. You can change it according to your mood. A practical stand will protect your neck from cold and wind. Thanks to its fleece lining, you will have a pleasant feeling even in winter.

The hooded jacket closes with a zip. The zipper is finished with a chin guard and is additionally lined with a protective wind flap. You will also appreciate the inner cuffs with thumb holes and the outer cuffs with velcro, which adapt to any hand. You will definitely not be cold in this red jacket! The bottom hem of the winter windbreaker is adjustable. Inside you will also find a snow belt with two snap fasteners. The red jacket for ladies is timeless and has up to four practical outer zip pockets. Two on the sides and two on the chest. You will also appreciate the inner pockets - one with a zipper and one made of mesh. The sports jacket for skiing is designed for every modern woman.
