Description

Merrell women's shoes. Women's hiking boots, which, thanks to the higher cut and the Gore-Tex membrane, are also suitable for more demanding terrain. Women's hiking boots have a universal black color and turquoise details. You can easily combine them with your hiking clothes. Women's hiking boots have a durable and breathable upper that ensures sufficient air circulation even on an all-day hike.

Women's hiking boots have traditional lacing with metal eyelets. Merrell shoes have a sewn-in tongue that prevents dirt from entering. The heel and toe are reinforced and will provide you with additional stability. Trek shoes have a comfortable insole. A lightweight EVA foam midsole provides comfort. The rubber sole absorbs shocks and adheres well even on uneven or wet surfaces. Outdoor shoes are suitable for all outdoor adventures.
