Description

Under Armor women's pants. Sports pants are designed in a minimalist design. The training pants also impress with their excellent functional properties. Sports pants have UA Storm technology, which ensures waterproofness. The UA Storm surface treatment ensures water resistance.

The advantage of training pants is the light fabric, which provides comfort when worn. The 4-way stretch material is flexible and allows a high level of mobility. The excellent breathability of the material is also a plus. The elastic waist perfectly adapts to the figure. Two side pockets are used to store small items. Under armor black pants are the best choice for training, sports activities, various exercises and active leisure time.
