Description

Voxx brand socks. Children's socks in a three-pack are ideal for sports activities. They are very soft to the touch, but thanks to the reinforced foot made of terry material, they are sufficiently strong. Boys' hiking socks have antibacterial protection with the help of silver ions in the silproX material.

Tourist socks for children have a classic higher cut and impress with a sporty design in a modern combination of colors. Voxx children's socks are decorated with a brand inscription. Antibacterial socks belong to temperature class B: from -5°C to + 20°C.
