Description

Women's skirt by Northfinder brand. The outdoor skirt impresses with its nice appearance. If you want to be sexy and stylish even while hiking, this skirt is the right choice. Thanks to the classic cut, it suits every body type. The front part is pleated and the skirt can be gathered at the side seams.

The skirt for ladies will delight you with its flexible material, which perfectly adapts to the figure. The advantage of the hiking skirt is water repellency, which ensures optimal waterproofing. The elastic waist, which can be adjusted with a string, is also a plus. A smaller pocket hides small items. A black skirt is an excellent choice for a trip, for free time, and you can also wear it for shopping and to the city.
