Description

Frendo raincoat. The tourist raincoat in blue has a low weight, only 185g, so it is easy to carry and store. The universal size fits almost any figure and thus protects you from getting wet during hiking adventures.

The rain poncho for adults has fastening on both sides. The edge of the hood has an elastic cord. If necessary, you can also create a shelter from the raincoat. A raincoat with a hood should not be missing in the equipment of any hiker. It is delivered in a practical bag.
