Description

Kilpi men's shorts. Trekking shorts appeal with a modern outdoor design. The hiking shorts are made of light fabric that ensures very good air circulation. Thanks to the elastane, the outdoor shorts are flexible and easily adjustable. There are also belt loops.

The trekking shorts have several pockets that hide everything you need. The advantage of the shorts for the forest is the classic cut and the crotch wedge, which ensures a high level of movement. Combine mountain shorts with a men's hiking t-shirt and set off on an adventure. Men's shorts are perfect companions for trekking, camping, outdoor activities and hiking.
