Description

Men's sweatshirt of the brand Under Armour. The black sweatshirt closes with a zipper and is decorated with a white logo of the brand on the chest. Another contrasting element is the white drawstrings that are used to pull down the built-in hood. The hooded sweatshirt for men is made of a pleasant material, the so-called French terry. Its inner side warms pleasantly.

The zip-up sweatshirt is very comfortable to wear. On the sides you will find two open pockets. The sleeves and bottom hem of the branded sweatshirt is finished with a ribbed elastic hem. The material of the sweatshirt wicks away sweat well and the men's sweatshirt dries very quickly. The Under Armor sweatshirt is suitable for everyday wear, but you won't regret it even when you take it to training.
