Description

Under Armor women's bra. The Crossback bra impresses with its distinctive yellow design. The compression bra will delight you with its great functionality. It is a piece that must not be missing in your sports equipment. The training bra is made of high-quality HeatGear material, which is pleasant and provides excellent sweat removal. A sports bra is a guarantee of excellent ventilation. The training bra has cups that are removable and hold their shape well. You can also use it for sports activities with light intensity.

The sports bra has a thin elastic bottom band that adapts nicely to you. The straps are thin and decorated with inscriptions with the brand name. Anti-odor technology tries to eliminate bacteria that create odors during their reproduction. The women's bra uses 4-Way Stretch technology, which guarantees a high degree of movement. The UA brand bra is intended for sports and leisure activities.
