Description

Anta brand women's shoes. Sports shoes have a durable upper with stitching that underlines the feminine look. On the outside, there is additional material along the women's shoes, which ensures the stability of the foot. Women's sneakers have classic lacing and a pleasant soft tongue. A padded shoe collar also contributes to comfort while wearing women's sneakers.

Brand sneakers have a design of clean lines and will please all active women. The midsole of women's boots provides gentle cushioning and shock absorption. They have a rubber sole that is stretched to the tip in the front. This ensures additional protection and extends the life of the shoes. Trendy sneakers for ladies hold firmly on the surface. Training boots are an ideal choice for sports activities, workouts and active leisure time.
