Description

Anta brand women's shoes. Sports shoes for ladies who follow an active lifestyle. Women's sneakers have a breathable upper made of technical mesh. They will provide sufficient comfort even during all-day wear. Women's boots have a reinforced toe and heel to provide support and stability. You can easily combine stylish sneakers with your sportswear.

Women's boots have classic lacing. They are comfortable thanks to the padded collar and soft tongue. The inner insole also contributes to comfort. The training sneakers have a midsole that will provide gentle cushioning and shock absorption. The rubber sole of the training sneakers adheres well to the surface and does not slip. They are suitable for training, light running or workout exercises and free time.
