Description

Fundango women's jacket. The ski windbreaker charms with its elegant design. A hood with fur adds style and flair to the ski jacket. A women's windbreaker with fashionable stitching will please every lady who wants to be trendy when skiing.

A windbreaker for skiing is not only synonymous with style, but also with great functionality. The waterproof windbreaker will please you with its excellent water resistance. Good air ventilation is also a plus. The Dripex membrane also contributes to functionality. The ski windbreaker has several pockets that hide everything you need. The bottom hem of the ski jacket is adjustable. The purple jacket for ladies is the perfect choice for skiing or a winter vacation.
