Description

Blizzard women's jacket. The ski windbreaker charms trends with its appearance and modern stitching. Zippers in copper design give the ski jacket a twist. Part of the jacket is a removable hood, which comes in handy in dry weather. The taped seams are a bonus.

The ski jacket is designed with an emphasis on functionality. High water resistance and breathability is a guarantee of wonderful skiing. YKK zippers are known for extra durability. The snow belt prevents the penetration of snow into the windbreaker. Two side pockets and one inner zip pocket will serve to store everything you need. There is also a ski pass pocket on the sleeve.

A trendy ski jacket is a nice-to-have piece of clothing that should not be missing from the wardrobe of stylish skiers.
