Description

Adidas men's football boots. Turf soccer cleats in black design have characteristic three stripes on the side in a contrasting color. The advantage of football turfs is the midsole made of EVA material, which provides excellent cushioning. Adidas turfs will please all soccer players.

Football boots are partially made from recycled materials. They have a classic cut and a lace-up fastening that you can customize. The light construction of men's football boots is a support during sports matches and training. Soft and pleasant inner padding will also ensure comfort during sports. The sole of soccer cleats with excellent grip is also a guarantee of very good traction and therefore speed. Speedportal soccer cleats are designed for artificial turf.
