Description

Adidas women's shoes. Sneakers for ladies attract attention with their stylish appearance. Trendy sneakers in white design are decorated with three white stripes on the side for a monochromatic look. The branded boots have a synthetic leather upper that perfectly adapts to the foot. White adidas sneakers have a higher cut that ensures a higher degree of stability. Women's boots have classic laces for a better fit.

Women's sneakers have a perforated toe for a higher level of breathability. You can easily combine white boots with many outfits and create a trendy look. Stylish boots are inspired by the 1980s. Branded boots are great companions for everyday wear, to the city, for shopping or free time.
