Description

Blizzard brand skis. Branded skis are intended for performance skiers who already know what they want from skis. With a Trueblend Piste wood core and Active Carbon Armor damping system, the Thunderbird R15 is designed to give you the confidence and confidence to carve corners as fast as you dare on any groomed slope, and with a 15m radius, it has the turning versatility you need.

In addition to functional technologies, downhill skis also have a modern design and appearance. For example, the stamped Blizzard logo, matte-gloss surface or gunmetal finish make them exceptional. Black skis have orange details, which looks very trendy.

Binding is included in the price of skis .
